

FRATERNITIES ASKED TO HELP

True Organizations Also Requested to Co-operate in Making Known Purposes of Community Fund and Plans for Campaign May 16—Three Meetings Today.

The board of directors of the Kingston Community Fund, through the publicity committee, is sending the following letter to the secretary of each fraternal and trade organization in the giving of publicity to the purposes of the Community Fund and to the plans for the campaign to be held Sunday, May 16.

Inasmuch as all the social welfare agencies that will receive support out of the fund are now doing an established work in the city and as the proposed expenditures on which their requests for appropriations from the Community Fund have been carefully examined by the board of directors of the Community Fund, it is confidently expected that the solicitation in this campaign will meet with most generous and hearty response provided that every one in the city becomes fully acquainted with the plans and scope of the movement.

To this end the directors and publicity committee are especially anxious to enlist general co-operation in setting forth the nature of the Community Fund and the efficient work of the seven organizations that are to benefit from it. The letter follows:

Dear Sir: The board of directors of the Kingston Community Fund has requested me as chairman of the publicity committee to ask you to bring to the attention of the members of your organization at one of your meetings prior to Sunday, May 16, the campaign for the Kingston Community Fund which is to be held on that date.

The fund to be raised will go to support the work in the city of Kingston of the Y. M. C. A., Benedictine Sanitarium, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Agency for Dependent Children, Salvation Army and Kingston Industrial Home.

All of these organizations are doing an established work in this city which has commended itself to the people of Kingston.

Inasmuch as they have all been receiving support from the Ulster County War Chest, it became necessary for all of them to secure funds at the same time. The Kingston Community fund was formed to avoid the waste and inconvenience that would have been caused by the holding of several campaigns and a series of special appeals within two months.

Community funds have been raised in a large number of cities. This has been found to be an effective and economical way of securing necessary support for various social welfare organizations that every city finds it necessary to maintain.

Signed SYDNEY D. HUDSON, Chairman, Publicity Committee. Board of Directors: Judge G. D. B. Hasbrouck, chairman; Frank R. Fowler, Charles R. O'Connor, John E. Mahar, Dr. Mark O'Meara, Palmer Canfield, Jr., Ralph Cohen, Joseph M. Herbert, Samuel Watts, Joseph M. Fowler, Harry P. Dodge, Frank B. Matthews, William C. DeWitt, William B. Martin, R. C. Dittus, Mrs. Frank Thompson, Mrs. N. D. J. Murphy.

Three important meetings are being held today. The board of directors of the Community Fund will meet in the court house at 4 p.m. The publicity committee will meet in the rooms for the Agency for Dependent Children at 5 and the ward captains meet for conference in the Y. M. C. A. at 5:30.

NO TIDINGS OF PRES. CARRANZA

Sonora Rebel Agency Reports Him on Way to Vera Cruz While Dispatches to U. S. Border Deny It—Escape Undetected Impossible.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Washington, May 7.—President Carranza left Mexico City at 1 o'clock last night for Vera Cruz, according to a message received early today by the agency of the Sonora revolution here.

President Carranza is reported in the advices received here to have left Mexico City under escort of troops in command of General Canido Aguilar, his son-in-law.

The message received at the revolutionary agency here came by way of Laredo, Texas, and was filed at 1 o'clock last night. It stated: "At this hour President Carranza is leaving Mexico City for Vera Cruz."

A special train was arranged for the departure of the president, the message received here stated.

The railroads between Mexico City and Vera Cruz are under control of rebels, but it is believed that rebel leaders would not attempt to stop the president from proceeding to Vera Cruz if assured that he was not taking large sums of money with him.

It is believed that the president will endeavor to make a stand at the seaport capital. In case he should decide to flee the country entirely, he could undoubtedly find refuge on some foreign ship in the harbor.

General Pablo Gonzales who deserted the Carranza government for the rebel forces, has now issued a statement declaring that he is not supporting General Obregon, authoritative advices received here today stated. This was accepted here as indicating that a new revolutionary force may be forming in Mexico.

San Antonio, Texas, May 7.—Reports that Carranza has fled to Vera Cruz are denied in telegrams received at Laredo and other border points in direct communication with Mexico City, according to a special dispatch from Laredo, published in the San Antonio News today.

Carranza is under constant surveillance of revolutionary agents and his escape without detection is impossible, the dispatch declares.

The president will be in direct communication at all times with administration leaders at the convention not only by direct telegraph wires leading into the White House executive offices, but also by a direct telephone line which will be set up in order that he may converse from his study. According to present plans the president will remain in Washington until after the San Francisco convention, but should the plans be changed and the summer White House be established at one of the shore resorts of New England, the same means of communication will be established with San Francisco.

No indication has been given at the White House as to who the president's personal representative will be, but it is expected it will be Bernard M. Baruch.

GERMANY ON WAY UPWARD AGAIN

By Telegram to The Freeman. Paris, May 7.—Germany has reached and passed her lowest point and now has begun the upward climb which is destined to place her once more among the foremost nations of the earth, according to Herr Mayer, German charge d'affaires in Paris, who has just returned from a trip to Berlin.

Herr Mayer returned from Germany with a decidedly optimistic view of conditions east of the Rhine. "Germany has passed her lowest point and is now coming back," he said. "Coal production has been resumed on a large scale and has now reached the point where it was before the Kapp revolution. Our train service has been greatly improved and there is a marked better spirit among the workers."

Herr Mayer declared that he informed Premier Millerand that it would be impossible for Germany to decide until next year the amount she is able to pay the allies annually under the treaty. Parliament has adopted a new taxation program, but it is impossible to estimate the amount of revenue it will bring in before it is collected at the end of the financial year.

It is useless, according to Mayer, to expect that Germany can reach the point of fullest production until the allies fix the total amount of her indebtedness.

"We are ready to pay all we can but it is not possible to state the amount," he said.

$240 PROFITEER TOLL OF FAMILY

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, May 7.—Every family of the United States is paying a profiteering tax of $240 a year as a result of the excess profits made by the combined corporations of the country during the war. W. Jett Lauck, consulting economist and former secretary of the war labor board, declared today before the federal railroad labor board. Labor as a class, he declared, was worse off now than during the war.

Instead of labor costs being the initial influence in forcing increases in the cost of living, he said, wage increases have lagged behind price increases.

"Capital on the other hand," he said, "has received a very much larger proportion of the income of the country and is profiteering on such a scale as to menace the nation's future."

"Viewed as a pure economic proposition in the light of economic history, no sane man can fail to realize that the present situation in the United States marks the gravest crisis the nation has confronted since the union was threatened in 1860 and in the light of the easily obtainable evidence no unprejudiced citizen can fail to place the burden of the responsibility upon the groups of capitalists and financiers who have seized upon the sufferings and sacrifices of a nation at war as the means of aggrandizement such as the world before has never known."

Appearing on behalf of the railroad workers in the "big four" railroad brotherhoods and the unions affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, he presented a survey of prices, wages and profits containing startling charges of profiteering. This survey, he said was the result of eight months research by experts and based on federal income tax returns and investigations of government agencies like the federal tariff commission, the federal trade commission and the bureau of domestic and foreign commerce.

HIGHLAND RUNAWAY.

Woman Hit by Horse—Man Pinned Under Wheel.

Highland, May 7.—Mrs. George Hudson is suffering from bruises sustained when hit by a runaway horse as she was returning from a meeting of the Queen Esther Circle yesterday. Mrs. Hudson, Mrs. Alfred Hopper and Mrs. Harry Schumacher were occupants of Plasse's big Overland car. Mr. Plasse drew up to the right side of the road to let Mrs. Hudson out before proceeding with his other passengers. As Mrs. Hudson started to cross the road to her home, Mrs. Schumacher noticed the horse coming and called to Mrs. Hudson to step aside. The horse was hit by the car and was somewhat bruised and scared. The wagon struck the front of the car and bent the fender. The wagon was detached from the horse, which proceeded on his way minus his harness and ran to his home in Lorin Schantz's barn. As the wagon hit the auto it turned upside down, pinning Frank Tablin, driver of the rig, and an employee of Mr. Schantz, underneath it. He was slightly scratched. He was taken to his home by Lorin Callahan.

POLITICAL CAMPS BEGIN TO BUZZ

Activities Quickened as Date of G. O. P. Convention Nears—Governor Edwards Comes Out in the Open—Frank Hitchcock Back With Wood.

By Telegram to The Freeman. New York, May 7.—With the first of the big political conventions scheduled to open in Chicago just one month from tomorrow, things began to whip up politically today around the various camps in the east.

The outstanding developments were these:

Democrats

Governor "Teddy" Edwards of New Jersey, who frankly wants to make the United States "as wet as the Atlantic Ocean," came out into the open and announced himself a "sure enough, full fledged candidate at San Francisco."

A fight in the delegation over the "unit rule" is threatened. And it will be carried right to the floor at San Francisco, according to the opponents of Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany boss. Friends of William G. McAdoo are right behind the fight.

Republicans

Frank Hitchcock, reputed to be the most astute political mentor of either party, assumed charge of the Wood campaign, displacing for all practical purposes at least, Colonel William Proctor, the Cincinnati soap manufacturer and chief financial angel of the Wood drive.

The specter of another 1912 arises before the eyes of Republican leaders as a result of Hiram Johnson's ultimatum that he cannot be compromised with a vice-presidential nomination. It will either be the Republican presidential nomination or nothing with Johnson.

Herbert Hoover's headquarters announced that despite California and despite everything else, he still is a candidate and will remain so until after, say June 12, at Chicago, by which date it should be all over.

Governor Edwards' campaign headquarters are in charge of W. W. Vick, who was active in the candidacy of President Wilson in 1912, and who was later assistant secretary of the Democratic national committee.

The first communique from the Edwards camp said that the governor was making his campaign as "a business man" and not as an "opponent of the Volstead act." It was decided to bring his candidacy forward in compliance with a widespread demand from all parts of the country.

The placing of Hitchcock in charge of Wood's fortunes was looked upon in political circles as a masterful move. Colonel Proctor was placated with the title of "chairman of the national campaign committee," while Hitchcock's designation is that of "national campaign manager."

The result of the compromise, as viewed here, is that Colonel Proctor will continue to provide the show of war and Mr. Hitchcock will supply the delegates at which job he is an acknowledged expert.

OLD BATH CASE APPEAL ARGUED

Browning, King & Company's Appeal From Big Judgment Secured by Frank W. Terwilliger is Latest Step in Remarkable Litigation.

The five judges of the appellate division of the supreme court now sitting at Albany devoted four hours on Thursday to hearing the appeal of Browning, King & Company, the so-called billionaire clothing dealers of 22 cities in this country and Canada, from the judgment obtained for $131,181.48 against them by Frank W. Terwilliger at the trial term of the supreme court, held in this county before Judge Howard and a jury in May, 1919.

This case was one of the most notable ever tried here, and the verdict is said to be the largest ever obtained. The plaintiff Terwilliger, who has a country home near Highland, and whose business for many years has been the conduct of Russian and Turkish baths in the city of New York, rented from Browning, King & Company a Russian and Turkish bath which they had fitted up at an expense of about $60,000 in the basement of their building at the corner of Broadway, Sixth avenue and 33rd street. The lease was made in April, 1908, at a rental of $11,000 per year. Terwilliger did not pay his rent and was evicted by the landlords in 1910. He applied to the municipal court for leave to redeem, and was granted that leave provided he paid the rent due, $8,709.12. He claims to have borrowed the rent, and offered to pay it, and that it was refused by the defendants.

After his eviction the Hudson and Manhattan Railway Company, commonly known as the McAdoo Tunnel Railroad, under the permission of the Public Service Commission, the Legislature and Department of Public Buildings of New York, took possession of the swimming pools under the sidewalk of the building, demolished them to permit the construction of the tunnel, but restored them within six months.

Terwilliger never paid his back rent, never took possession of the property, although it was offered to him by the landlords, and sued Browning, King and Company for $200,000, claiming that they maliciously destroyed the swimming pools and bathing establishment, and had declined his tender of the money.

Browning, King and Company defended upon the ground that there never had been any tender of the rent due, that they never had destroyed any part of the bathing establishment, that whatever had been done had been done by the McAdoo Tunnel people as permitted by the law of the state, and the ordinances of the City of New York; that the entire property had been restored to its original condition within six months, that Terwilliger had been unable to make the baths pay, and that the great rival establishments of the Fleischmann's was so conducted as practically to wipe out similar establishments. Also they proved that they had advertised for tenants, and had been unable to rent the basement to any one for a bathing establishment, people who patronized Russian and Turkish baths preferring a sun parlor on the roof as a lounge to a basement underground for that purpose.

The case was first tried before Judge Rudd and a jury in March, 1919, when the jury disagreed. The second trial, as above stated, came on before Judge Howard and a jury, where it was tried by Judge Augustus Van Wyck, former Democratic candidate for governor of this state, for Terwilliger, and by Judge Clearwater for Browning, King & Company. The trial occupied substantially a week, and was rather notable from the fact that Judge Clearwater took sixty-six different exceptions to Judge Howard's rulings during the trial.

The case has a unique history. Terwilliger brought a previous action for the same alleged cause, to which Browning, King & Company demurred. The demurrer was sustained at the special term and at the appellate division. It went to the appeal term again, where the decision was by Judge Howard in favor of Terwilliger, which was reversed by the appellate division. Terwilliger appealed to the court of appeals, which dismissed his appeal. He then began this action upon a remodeled complaint.

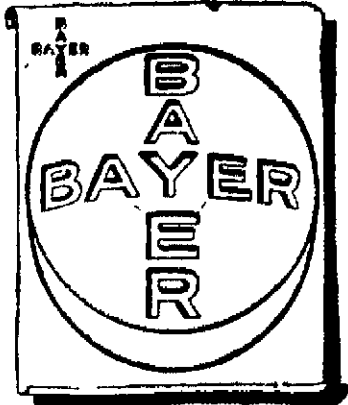

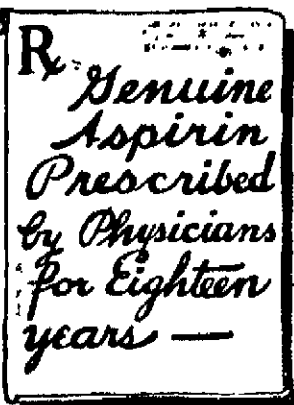

Judge Clearwater opened the argument on Thursday an hour before the usual 2 o'clock recess of the appellate division. As he had not finished at the time of the recess, the court announced that instead of adjourning until the following day it would reconvene at 3 o'clock. Judge Van Wyck presented the case for Terwilliger. The additional counsel in the case were Abraham Feinstein and Paul F. Lorzer for Terwilliger, with Judge Van Wyck, Charles T. Northrup and Judge Clearwater. The argument was listened to by the court and lawyers with great interest, as it involves important questions of law.

THINK NEW BILL DISCRIMINATES

Fourth District Teachers' at Conference Pledge Seives Not to Sign Contracts Unless They Get Same Benefits as City Teachers Under Donahue-Lockwood Bill—Other Business.

The last teachers' conference of the school year in the Fourth supervisory district of Ulster county was held at Phoenixia on May 3 and 4.

The first session began Monday morning at 11 o'clock. Miss Anna B. Herrig, of the New Paltz Normal, gave a very interesting talk on "Talking and Speech." The teachers of the fourth district have had the privilege of listening to Miss Herrig several times and her talks are always practical and inspiring.

Miss Herrig laid stress on the fact that of all creation, the human only has power of speech. Primitive man was limited in speech and many years have been taken in the perfection of language. It is the vital duty of the teacher to perpetuate this heritage handed down to posterity.

The first half of the afternoon session was given over to informal discussions of various matters relating to school affairs. Chief among these things was the Donahue-Lockwood bill which has recently been passed by the legislature. This bill was said to have taken excellent care of the city teachers and the rural schools can take up with what is left. It was apparent that the teachers present believed that very few people in the cities can form an adequate idea of what the teacher in a one or two department rural school has to face. Many of these teachers have all the eight grades in one room, while the teacher in a large city or village school has usually but one grade. The general tendency is for teachers from the rural schools to leave for a position in the large city schools or to find a place in some other line of work where the pay is much better. The average salary of the teachers in the town of Olive is $692 a year and in the town of Hardenbergh it is $643 per year.

After a general consideration of the salary question, the following resolution was drawn up and unanimously adopted:

Whereas, the Lockwood-Donahue law provides for the apportionment of additional public money to common school districts, does not require that all of this additional apportionment shall be used for the increase of teachers' salaries, in accordance with the provisions of this law as applicable to union free school districts and cities;

Whereas, as a result of this action rural teachers are treated very unjustly in regard to minimum salaries and to annual increments;

Resolved, by the undersigned, teachers of the fourth supervisory district of Ulster county, that we hereby pledge ourselves to refuse to contract with any district trustee in said district who will not grant an increase over the salary paid in 1919-1920 in an amount equal to the increase in public money as provided by the Lockwood-Donahue law; and Resolved, further, that the other rural teachers of the state be called upon to take like action.

Tuesday was taken up with the physical education work. Miss Sheel and Miss Schneider, the two instructors, were both present.

Many of the teachers had made charts pertaining to health improvement and these were placed on exhibition. The best ones were selected by the instructors to be taken to New York city for exhibition there.

At the close of the conference a vote of thanks for their efficient instruction was given to Miss Sheel and Miss Schneider and the wish was expressed that they might return the coming year.

The regents examinations will be held the week of June 14 at the following places in the fourth district: Pine Hill Shandaken, Phoenixia, Ashkan and Woodstock.

MUST BE ORIENTAL

Present-Day Dress Accessories
Almost Barbaric.

Beads, Earrings and Oddly-Adorned Hats Are Among Styles Offered by Paris.

There is a splendor almost barbaric in present-day accessories of dress, notes a Paris fashion writer. Although production in Europe is not more than 15 per cent of normal, there appears to be no curtailment in purely decorative things. Along with the far eastern ideas that just now are embodied in clothes comes the use of bright colors; and in color alone there is limitless possibility for extravagant effects.

Oriental girdles of brilliantly colored galath or of beads are worn over sweaters, gowns, coats and even negligees. There are huge earrings, set with colored stones. No less a person than Lewis of Paris, makes hats with chains and earrings hanging from beneath the brim, the chains going across from one side of the brim to the other like rows of necklaces.

One hat goes so far as to have a Spanish comb thrust into the side for trimming. This is a tiny hat, with an uprolling brim in front and cut very short in the back. It is overhung with a draped veil, the folds of the drapery being fastened with the comb. Veils, too, are draped under the chin, after the manner of the strings of beads mentioned above. These oddly adorned hats act as foils for the new smooth coiffure that shows the hair drawn tightly back, without curl or wave of any sort, and the ends rolled under and pinned high at the back of the head, a striking mode of dressing the hair, but a trying one for many women. No ornament of any sort is worn with this type of hair-dressing, unless it be a Spanish comb thrust into one side of the coil.

NOVEL AND STUNNING FROCKS

The ecru silk basque of this novel frock is richly embroidered in gold and black. The skirt of taffeta, is gracefully draped over each hip giving an air of bouffancy.

CAN MAKE HER OWN BLOUSES

Accomplished Seamstress Able to Save Many Dollars in Constructing Wearing Apparel.

If you can do fine tucking and hem-stitching by hand you can have several distinguished blouses of the fine handkerchief linen sort so fashionable this spring. One blouse may be hemstitched in ladder effect down the front. Another may have tucks and lines of hemstitching in alternation across the front. Still another may have tucks running down from the shoulder line and a narrow row of horizontal tucks. The neck may be finished with a flat collar, tucked or hemstitched, or with three tiny, overlapping frills of lace. Or with an embroidery heading run with black velvet ribbon. The heading should take half-inch ribbon and should be attached to a rounded out neckline so that it will stand up straight—like a little collar.

Scarfs With Pockets.
Wide scarfs of satin are made with outside pockets, after the fashion of the woolen sport scarfs. The woolen scarfs, by the way, come in greater variety than ever before—and more charming variety, too. They are soft and wide and in lovely color combinations, sometimes in stripes, sometimes simply in blended weaves of different colored threads.

That Which Befits Us.
That which befits us, unadorned in beauty and wonder as we are, in our simplicity and courage, and the character to realize our aspirations. Shall not the heart which has received so much, trust the power by which it lives?—Edison.

KINGSTON, N. Y., MAY 7, 1920.

WASTE ADMITTED.

By months of hard work, in which it had the opposition of the administrative departments, Congress uncovered instances of extravagance in the management of the war. The evidence pointed very strongly to actual graft, but, with an effort to be charitable in criticizing the acts of a coordinate branch of the government, members of Congress hesitated to make the charge of dishonesty. While this highly important work of investigation was going on, the administrative departments ridiculed the proceedings and the Wilsonian Democratic press charged Congress with neglect of its duty while wasting funds in investigations. Congress was lampooned, insulted and denounced.

Now, however, comes administrative confirmation of the charges made by the legislative committee. On April 23 Attorney General Palmer issued a statement declaring that the United States lost millions on war contracts and that suits would be brought to recover the money. Says his statement: "Questionable vouchers unearthed in one class of contracts alone have resulted in the withholding of payments by the government amounting to approximately $4,420,000."

"Questionable vouchers" would seem to imply some sort of negligence or connivance on the part of some government employee. However, that may be, the statement of the Attorney General that more than four millions of dollars of fraudulent transactions have been uncovered in only one class of contracts is a sufficient confirmation of the charges made months ago by Congressional Committees that there had been waste if not graft of public funds. After deriding the investigating committees and heaping abuse without limit upon members of the legislative branch of the government, the executive branch now testifies to the accuracy of the charges made.

In view of the inactivity of the executive branch and its failure to begin prosecutions until the Congressional disclosures had made further delay impossible, the people of the country cannot fail to conclude that there was no intention to bring to the bar of justice those who were responsible for the malfeasance in office. The people of the nation are indebted to the various members of Congress who have labored so hard at the sacrifice of their own comfort and convenience, in order to protect the public interest. There is an old saying that Republics are ungrateful, but it is to be hoped that taxpayers will not fail to show their appreciation of the efforts of the men who hunted down the grafters and forced the Department of Justice from its lethargy.

A BRITISH COME-BACK.

In the British Parliament the other day a member "with a semblance of gravity" urged that the House should pass a resolution expressing sympathy with the aspirations of the Filipinos for independence and the hope that the Washington government would grant the demand for it which a commission from the islands has made. There was a time when every American might with good reason have regarded this as an intolerable impertinence and been rightfully indignant, but that time passed and with it any reasonable cause for complaint when recently our Senate voted through a similar resolution with regard to Ireland.

The resolution in our House naturally passed, but in the House of Commons the same sort of resolution got so far as a member's suggestion. Speaking in response for the British government, Andrew Bonar Law said he knew nothing about the Filipino commissioners and that the matter was one in which Great Britain had no concern. It was significant that this very proper view of the matter met no objection from any part of the House of Commons and the subject was dropped. Evidently the whole thing was planned merely as a public rebuke to the American Senate in the form of a reminder of what the House of Commons might also do if it so preferred.

to mind its own business. This pretended attempt to imitate American statesmen was not meant as flattery by the British statesmen who masked the pointed jest with their accustomed gravity.

So eager was Assistant Secretary of Labor Post to protect his friends, the radicals, that he has been known to send for the papers in deportation cases at the rate of 100 a day in order that he might cancel the warrants. This is but one of the many charges that have been brought against Post in the course of the investigation of his conduct being conducted by the House of Representatives. And still he sits at his desk, undisturbed by his superiors, the President and the Secretary of Labor, thwarting the course of justice and contributing substantially to the cause of the Reds.

TO LEARN BILLING.

New Machine at Moran School Saves Time and Labor.
 A short time ago the Moran Business School, Burgevin Building, announced that it had added to its equipment a Burroughs' figuring and listing machine of one of the latest types. The management of the Moran School now reports the further addition of Model 11 Remington billing machine, equipped with a key-set decimal tabulator. The ease with which this machine adapts itself to every form of tabular work and its great labor saving features, make it almost indispensable where billing, statistical or any considerable amount of other tabular work is done.

The installation of these up-to-date machines is in line with the consistent policy of the Moran School to equip its students with knowledge and skill in the use of the many devices found in the business office, with a view to enabling them to be of greatest service to the business or professional man, and to keep pace with the exacting requirements of modern business.

LEIBHARDT.

Leibhardt, May 5.—The Misses Florence Hornbeck and Carrie Wynkoop, who have positions in Kingston spent from Saturday until Monday at the home of Miss Edna Hornbeck.

Mrs. Norman Quick and children were callers at the home of Mrs. Amelia Markle Sunday evening. Mrs. Stephen Gorsline, Melvin Gorsline and Mrs. Ernest Markle were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Krom at Pataukunk on Sunday.

Those from this place who attended the social and play entitled "Murder Will Out," at Mettachahonts last Saturday evening reported one of the best plays of the season. Refreshments of cake and cream were served by the ladies of Mettachahonts and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed. Ephraim C. Krom has left his employment at Lake Minnewaska and is working for Mrs. Agnes Brown. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Miller of Poughkeepsie are visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Miller of this place.

Miss Luella Brown and J. O. Solberg of New York were week end guests of relatives, returning to the city on Monday.

Mrs. Mary Quick of Briarcliff has moved back to her former home. All glad to welcome Mrs. Quick home again.

Arbor Day was observed by the school last Friday by cleaning up the school grounds and planting three trees.

Mrs. Christina Gray and son, Jacob, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Markle at Mettachahonts on Sunday.

Norman DeWitt is ill. He is being treated by Dr. Fuller of Kerhonkson. We all hope for his speedy recovery as he is missed at Sunday school and day school.

Ernest Markle is one of the lucky fishermen these days, having recently caught a nice mess of trout.

Vernon Barnhart was elected trustee at the annual school meeting that was held Tuesday evening, May 4.

Mrs. Annie Hornbeck, who has been spending the past season at Yama Farm Inn at Napanoch, is enjoying a month's vacation with her many friends and relatives.

Remember the hour of Sunday school at 2 o'clock on Sunday afternoon.

Miss Merriam Brown and brother, D. Meade, of Ellenville spent the week end at the home of Miss Merriam Brown, in company with her sister, Miss Luella Brown, attended the social at Mettachahonts Saturday evening.

Miss Joanne DeWitt who has a position at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irving at Ellenville, is expected to spend the week end with her father, Henry DeWitt and family.

We are glad to see Frank Miller and Fred Brown out again after having the measles the past two weeks.

Mrs. Elma Miller and Miss Lelia Smith of Krumville enjoyed a walk to this place on Monday afternoon to do some shopping at Brown's store.

Mrs. Miller spent the remainder of the afternoon with Mrs. J. E. Lawrence and Miss Smith with her aunt, Mrs. Mary Quick.

We are all pleased to hear that Mrs. Norman Christy and her four children of Rochester Center have nearly recovered from the measles and are able to be around again.

Henry S. DeWitt is on his old job again this week, drawing timber. Henry says farming suits him best.

Many Leibhardt friends were saddened to hear of the death of Mrs. Cecil Gray of Samosville. A large circle of friends extended sympathy to the bereaved husband, mother and relatives.

Alps and the Rockies.
 The Swiss Alps are traversed by rail in the 1920s, but the magnificent scenery between Calgary and Vancouver is still for the most part untraveled.

STREET FORCE WANT A $4 DAY

It is understood that the members of the city street force have filed a petition with the board of public works asking for a raise in wages. The petition sets forth the fact that other cities are paying higher wages than Kingston, and that owing to the increase in living expenses the men desire $4 a day instead of the present $2.

It is expected that the board will take some action in the matter at the meeting to be held later in the month.

ARRESTS LESS THAN LAST YEAR

According to the police records there have been 70 arrests made by the police force so far this year. For the same period last year there were 116 arrests made, or 46 more than this year. The records show but one arrest made for public intoxication this year and 19 for disorderly conduct. The other arrests were on charges of assault in the third degree, speeding and minor violations.

The longest lawsuit on record lasted over 400 years. It was a dispute about some land in Poland. The people interested being the Schizacks of Orlov and the Schizacks of Polovka. It began in the year 1500, and a settlement was arrived at in 1900, the land being then divided among the then representatives of the original Magyars.

Emile Bachelet, Noted Inventor, Getting Apparatus to Be Used Ready for Scientific Demonstration to Be Given Here—Now Kingston Resident.

What promises to be one of the most interesting scientific demonstrations ever seen in Kingston will be given in the near future in the high school auditorium by Emile Bachelet, the noted inventor, who is now a resident of Kingston. The apparatus to be used in the demonstration has just been received, and Mr. Bachelet is busy setting it up, and testing it out, which will require some time. The apparatus used in the demonstration is valued at $20,000.

Today a Freeman reporter saw Mr. Bachelet and was given a demonstration of some of the wonders that will be shown. Mr. Bachelet claims that he has invented a method to overcome gravitation, and while the reporter is far removed from being an expert in electrical matters there was no question but that Mr. Bachelet was able to suspend substantial bits of aluminum, iron and steel in air without any visible means of support by means of what he calls electro-magnetic repulsion.

In the first place Mr. Bachelet lays no claim to being a prestidigitator, and the demonstration to be given is merely an exposition of scientific principles with the assistance of electricity. Today he showed a small scale on which he placed three and a quarter pounds of aluminum and brass. Then he produced a machine which he called a "synchronizing interruptor" by the use of which, he explained, the power of an alternating electric current could be increased 100 per cent.

After placing the aluminum and brass on the scales he turned on the synchronizing interruptor. The squares of copper and aluminum were raised off the platform and back shot the finger of the indicator to nothing showing that the weight had been removed. The current was shut off and the aluminum and copper pieces dropped back to the plate and the scales registered three and a quarter pounds.

periments" as Mr. Bachelet called reporter's attention to another interesting experiment. In a small box was what appeared to be a coil. He asked the reporter to place his hand on it and on the open hand he laid a square of aluminum. Then he turned on the current. Absolutely no shock was felt but the electric wave passing through the open hand raised the piece of aluminum in the air and held it suspended and then as the current was turned off the aluminum fell back into the hand.

These and a few other "simple experiments" as Mr. Bachelet called them were shown, but the climax of the demonstration was the aerial railroad. Ringed up on one side of the room was a model of what might be called an overhead electric road. On the model sat a car shaped like a cigar. By turning on the electricity this car can be shot along the tracks at a terrific rate of speed, and can be stopped at any point. In fact the car was kept in perfect control by the operator at the electric switchboard.

As soon as the apparatus used can be set up and tested out thoroughly the date of the demonstration will be announced. It will be free to the public, and is not an advertising scheme in any way.

Mr. Bachelet was born in France, but has been a resident of this country for over a quarter century. He is a former resident of Mt. Vernon, and has spent much time in Europe demonstrating his various inventions.

YOUR SUMMER OUTING

START TO PLAN IT NOW. There is a lot of joy in dreaming about when and where you will go, who goes with you and what you will wear.

A STURDY little sports suit for traveling and knockabout. An inexpensive silk frock to save laundry. A cool organdie or georgette for dancing. Possibly a skirt or a waist is needed to get you ready.

True, you could get them 'most anywhere if you would accept 'most anything. But you like little touches of distinction about your things, don't you.

THEN COME TO US. We've had just the best time getting ready for your summer. We have dreamed with you about your clothes. Now they're here.

All the while, too, we have kept in mind the awful H. C. of L., and in spite of it we have gotten together a splendid lot of smart summer wearables at moderate prices.

May Meeting of D. A. R. Also Occasion of Presentation of German Machine Gun By Sergeant Jackson—Reports of Continental Congress—Daughters Hear Musical Celebrity.

The May meeting of Wiltwyck Chapter, D. A. R., was largely attended on Thursday, and in addition to the interesting reports of the recent Continental Congress several highly prized gifts notably a German machine gun, presented by Sergeant Jackson, were received and acknowledged, and a noted musician entertained the Daughters, making the afternoon one of particular interest and enjoyment.

Following the routine business with which the monthly D. A. R. meetings open, Sergeant William Jackson (colored) of Battery D, 349th Field Artillery, in behalf of that body of men, presented Wiltwyck Chapter, D. A. R., with a one-man German machine or rapid-fire gun captured in France. Sergeant Jackson told of the appreciation of the men for the gifts, particularly the knitted garments which the Chapter had sent to them, and expressed the hope that the Chapter would accept the gift as a slight material expression of that appreciation. He explained the operation of the gun weighing some twenty-five or thirty pounds, and throughout what he had to say proved to be of unusual interest.

Other gifts received by the Chapter were four lineage books, the gifts of Mrs. Philip Elting and Mrs. Arthur Hornbeck of Ellenville, delegates to the Continental Congress, and which will complete the set of lineage books in the possession of the Chapter.

Mrs. J. P. Paulding presented the Chapter with a steel engraving of the capture of Major Andre, which was of special interest inasmuch as one of the three captors was an ancestor of the late Mr. Paulding.

Still another very highly prized gift was that of a chair which belonged to General George Washington, the donor being Mrs. George Walker. The following history of the chair accompanied it: "This chair is one of a set of eight chairs which, together with other parlor furniture of General George Washington was willed to his favorite officer, Colonel Stokes. Colonel Stokes in turn willed these chairs to Peter Hageman of New York city. Mr. Hageman distributed the chairs among his relatives, this one coming to his cousin, Mr. Aiken, who gave it to his sister, Mrs. George Walker of this city. Mrs. Walker takes great pleasure in presenting it to Wiltwyck Chapter." Mrs. Walker also presented the chapter with two pictures of Washington which were issued during the early days of the Revolutionary war. The gratitude and appreciation of the chapter for these unusual gifts was sincere and enthusiastic.

The two reports from the recent Continental Congress given by Mrs. Philip Elting, regent's alternate, and Mrs. Kathryn D. Boice, delegate, were then given, and proved to be exceptionally full of interest. Mrs. Elting first described the farewell dinner given by Miss Broadhead, the retiring state regent, to the members of her board and other guests, on Sunday night. At the business meeting which followed, it was voted to change the time of the annual State Convention this year, from November to October 7th and 8th, as it was to be held in Saratoga.

Mrs. Elting then went on to briefly, but graphically, describe the sessions of the congress, noting the most important features, among them being a wonderful "Apostrophe to the American Flag," given by Dr. Marie L. Sanford, Prof. Emeritus of the University of Minnesota, who at eighty-three years of age, spoke in the ringing voice of a girl. The congress was greatly shocked to hear on the following Wednesday of the sudden death of Dr. Sanford.

The keynote of the address of the president general, Mrs. Guernsey, was as last year, "Americanism." Greetings and gratitude from the people of Poland were brought to the D. A. R. delegates and members by Princess Lubomirski and her husband, the prince.

On Monday night the congress was given the rare, unexpected and highly appreciated privilege of hearing a few words from General Pershing.

Another notable speaker before the congress was Secretary of State Bainbridge Colby.

At the state meetings on Tuesday afternoon, it was reported that New York state had seven real Daughters of the Revolution, all in good health.

Mrs. Elting's report dwelt at some length upon the report of the retiring state regent of South Carolina, which told of the Tomassie School, the only D. A. R. school for mountain children.

The report stated that "One of the most wonderful features of the congress, in fact an event which has never occurred in the history of the society was the nomination of Mrs.

THE BIG FIRE SALE

At LOVIN'S, 326 Wall Street

Started off with a rush never before seen in Kingston. Thousands of people were unable to get inside the building and every one who appreciated High Class Merchandise made up in the latest style realized and appreciated the enormous reductions.

As soon as repairs are made and this stock is disposed of we shall open fresh and new with the best the country affords.

C. H. LOVIN.

George Maynard Minor of Waterford, Conn., for the office of president general, without opposition. She was chosen by over 155,000 Daughters without opposition.

Mrs. Boice, who was taken ill directly after the congress and did not return to Kingston until Wednesday, gave a brief and often humorous report of the congress, not as she heard it but as she saw it, for her seat was too far from the stage to permit her to hear much of what was going on. But she did note that during the last three years the society has paid off $92,000 indebtedness and the treasurer general has handled $1,094,882.61. The society has bought $100,000 worth of Liberty Bonds.

Finding that the present beautiful Continental Hall is already quite inadequate for the housing of offices of the society, it was, after careful consideration voted to mortgage Continental Hall for $200,000, with which sum to build suitable offices on a lot owned by the society and adjoining Continental Hall.

Mrs. Boice also took note of the fact that every state and territory and Cuba was represented at the congress, some of the far western states sending large delegations. There were many new and costly gifts for the new banquet hall.

Up to the time that the continental congress went into session $66,208 had been raised for the rehabilitation of the French village of Tillaloy.

The total number of members of the National D. A. R. is now 155,785, with 1,697 chapters; 20,050 new members have been reported in the last three years. Against this gain 7,000 deaths were recorded.

Following the reports, the program, introducing Carl Behr, charter member and present member of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, and one of the greatest living zither players, and which had been arranged by Mrs. Leonard K. Stelle and Mrs. Roscoe Irwin, was given.

Mr. Behr first played two beautiful cello numbers, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. William S. Eltinge, "Berceuse" by Squires and a French dance as an encore number. Master Ellyer Morris then gave a reading, "The Song of a Camp," after which Miss Mary Crane delightfully sang "The Garden of My Heart," accompanied by Mrs. Jones.

Mr. Behr then introduced many of the audience to the exquisite possibilities of the zither, playing a Romance and a March, both his own compositions. These were followed by numbers asked for, "Annie Laurie" and Traumerel, all of which were listened to with the keenest pleasure.

The program, which had so charmed the audience, came to a close with another pleasing solo sung by Miss Crane, after which Mrs. John Brodhead and Mrs. U. S. Grant, as hostesses, entertained the members during the closing social hour.

AT THE THEATRES.

"Listen Lester" Tonight—Farnum at Keeney's.

William Farnum is to be presented at Keeney's tonight and tomorrow in "Heart Strings," his newest Fox production, in which he creates what is perhaps his most interesting role—that of Pierre, the sensitive musical genius of a little Canadian village, who wins the heart of a New York society belle after he has sacrificed his all for love of his sister. The Kinogram news weekly and Keystone comedy are added features.

William Russell in "Hobbs in a Hurry," will be at the Auditorium tonight. It is one of his best and the story, well—it is action and plenty of it. A Billy West comedy and Fox Mighty news weekly are also programmed. Tomorrow Frank Mayo in "Burnt Wings" and "The Invisible Hand."

A real tonic is "Listen Lester" the musical comedy which John Cort presents at the Kingston Opera House tonight, with the entire New York cast, chorus, production and special company orchestra potent, pleasant to the taste and smell and sight and a sure cure for all the ills that flesh is heir to. It comes under the musical comedy brand of tonics.

CHICHESTER.

Chichester, May 6.—Miss Margaret Keator has the measles. There have been several other cases of this disease here.

At the annual school meeting held on May 4 the following persons were elected to office: S. B. Schwarzwaelder, trustee; Andrew DuBois, collector; Chauncey Shultis, secretary.

There was no school on Monday and Tuesday because the teachers attended a conference which was held at Phoenixia.

The bowling team from this place went to Big Indian Saturday night and rolled three games with the Big Indian team. Chichester won only one game out of the three.

Edwin Chase of Olivera was a visitor in this village last Monday and Tuesday.

Miss Bessie Bennett of Kingston is ill at the home of her parents here. The men in the factory here are now working ten hours a day. The W. O. Schwarzwaelder & Company run their plant on an eight hour schedule but at present they are rushed with work. The employees receive time and a half for this overtime.

RIFLES HERE FOR STATE CADETS

100 Military Pattern Ross Arms Complete to be Ready for Use at Monday's Drill at Armory.

The boys of Kingston between the ages of 16 and 19 will be glad to hear that the rifles for their use in drill have finally been received in this city. The delivery of these rifles has been promised so often and so often delayed that instructors and cadets alike have almost despaired of ever getting them, but they were finally received on Wednesday of this week and are now being cleaned and inspected at the local state armory on Broadway in preparation for their issuance to the cadets, and it is expected that this work will be completed in time for them to be used at all drills beginning next Monday, May 10.

It has always been the intention of the state military training commission to supply arms for the use of the cadets subject to training, but up to the present time this policy has been held up by several factors, chief among which was the extreme difficulty of obtaining rifles during the world war and in the period since the actual close of fighting. The local instructors have realized for some time that continual drilling with neither arms nor uniforms is exceedingly monotonous, however beneficial it may be to a boy physically and mentally, and the receipt of the rifles is particularly welcome because it will be possible from now on to take up instruction under arms at all drills and in so doing add greatly to the interest of the drills.

The shipment of arms just received is of 100 Ross rifles of the standard military pattern, .30 calibre, complete in all details, including bayonet, scabbard and gun-sling. This was the official arm of the Canadian Expeditionary Force in France, all of the rifles in this consignment having seen service in the Canadian army and having been brought from Canada by New York state. Certain other stations in the state have for some time past been using the wooden "dummy" rifle for the purpose of instruction at drill. Kingston is fortunate in receiving the real rifle instead of the imitation and from now on it is expected that the interest in drill will be greatly increased.

Willow Furniture. When willow furniture will be longer become white when scrubbed with salt water, it may be turned to a bronze color with bitumen.

TO INCREASE BREAD PRICES

With Flour at $17 a Barrel and Coal More Than $12 a Ton City Bakers Feel That they Must Get More—New Prices Effective Monday.

As will be seen by an advertisement running in tonight's issue of The Freeman, bread and rolls will take a jump beginning next Monday. The leading bakers state that with flour $17 a barrel and coal at over $12 a ton they are unable to go on at the old prices. Aside from this labor has advanced, sugar is scarce and dear, and the same may be said of wrapping paper and other incidentals connected with the bakery business.

On Monday one pound loaves of bread will be advanced to 12 cents, and one and a half pound loaves to 18 cents. All rolls and buns will retail at 18 cents a dozen.

This action has not been taken by an association, but by a number of bakers who have felt the pressure of the high cost of raw materials and labor. The bakers state that they have held off advancing the price for some time, but now they feel that they must get higher prices in accordance with the advance which they must meet.

AT AGUDAS ACHIM.

Celebrate Palestine's Restoration at Sunday Meeting.

Celebrating the restoration of Palestine, as the home of the Jews, there will be a meeting at Congregation Agudas Achim Sunday evening at 8 o'clock to which the public is invited. Speakers from out of town have been secured, and a musical program arranged which will include violin solos by Jacob Molott and David Balzani and vocal solos by Solomon Rodney and Sophie Rodner. Aaron Balzani will play the piano.

The KITCHEN CABINET

Grow old along with me,
The best is yet to be,
The last of life for which the first was made:
Our times are in his hand
Who saith, "A whole I planned,
Youth knows not half; trust God;
see all, nor be afraid."
—Robert Browning.

HELPFUL HINTS.

Now that butter is so costly, as in fact are most fats, housewives are finding it expedient, if not necessary, to substitute the cheaper fats whenever possible.

As bacon is such a commonly-used breakfast dish the fat accumulates and unless carefully treated is not palatable as a general purpose fat.

Take bacon fat, add cold water and heat until melted and hot on the back of the stove, then set away to cool. The fat will be washed clean from bits of charred bacon, and the smoky taste, which is so objectionable to many, is nearly removed. Such fat may be used in spice cakes, spiced puddings, fruit cookies, and in other dishes in which the flavor of spices or fruits predominates.

All meat drippings may be treated in the same way as bacon fat and they can then be used for biscuits, breads of various kinds, cookies and even for pastry. In using any washed fat or lard for shortening a good portion of salt must be used to give it the proper taste.

Chicken fats after being rendered, strained and cooled, can be used as shortening for delicate cakes and in dishes where butter is used, and for the seasoning of vegetables and soups as well as in puddings.

Sweet lard makes good shortening for ginger bread and molasses cookies.

To improve any of the butter substitutes put on the market, like oleomargarine, mix with a pound certain one teaspoonful of sugar—powdered is best, as it is smoothest in blending.

When washing bathroom rugs, lay them on the washboard after soaking them in—a good soda to loosen the soil, then scrub with a small scrubbing brush and soap, looking for all spots and going over every inch of surface. When well rinsed and hung without wringing on the line to dry, the rug will look like new. If very heavy it is best to dry on the grass, as the weight often breaks the warp.

So is the Price.

The power derived from a pound of coal today is nearly three times as great as it was 50 years ago.

"Heart Strings" surpasses in some ways every other play in which this noted star has appeared. It tells the story of a brother's great sacrifice for the little sister whom he adores. The early scenes are laid in the beautiful Laurentian Valley of Quebec from there the victim moves to New York's famous "Greenwich Village," the abode of artists, musicians, genius and near genius. Then to the home of a millionaire and again back to the peaceful village of the French Canadians. The story is one in which laughter and tears are intermingled. Big scenes which stir the consciousness and play upon the heart strings of humanity abound.

Genius soars on wings!
Perfidy and hate cannot crush it!
Pierre sacrificed all for his sister!
But his genius and honor's fearful vengeance redeemed him!

MAIL CLERKS GET MUCH EXERCISE

The life of a railway mail clerk is evidently far from being an enjoyable one, for instead of handling letters and newspapers as was formerly his main duty, now that he had to handle parcel post matter his work has evolved into that of the work of a longshoreman. The mail trucks at the Union station on Railroad avenue, with their loads of freight that is sent as parcel post to be unloaded into the postal railway cars are an indication of what the railway postal clerk has to handle. There are burlap bags containing hams, bags containing a bushel of potatoes each, bags holding 50 pounds of coal, metal, wood and paper board boxes containing eggs, huge cartons containing women's hats, hay rakes, dress suit cases, valises and scores of other articles. One parcel post clerk on a West Shore train Thursday evening, who called the attention of a Freeman reporter to two truck loads of the "junk" as he called it, said "we wouldn't kick, if we only got a $1 an hour pay like the longshoremen."

Food Values of Potatoes. That potatoes differ widely in food value is shown by a report of the government's scientific committee. It is laid down that the most useful potato for food is one which contains the largest amount of dry matter. Where two varieties are practically equal in this respect, the nitrogen they contain enters into the estimation of their feeding quality.
